Obroni Akunafo Kuo

Constitution Summary | Registered NGO CG024292019

Constitution - summary

This document summarises the governing rules of Obroni Akunafo Kuo. It is a summary for prospective partners and does not replace the full constitution.

Name and status

The organisation is known as Obroni Akunafo Kuo and operates as a non-profit organisation registered in Ghana under registration number CG024292019.

Aims and objects

To relieve hardship among widows, orphans, persons with disabilities and the aged; to support education and health; to promote dignity and inclusion; and to pursue related charitable purposes consistent with the organisation’s mission.

Membership

Membership is open to persons who support the aims of the organisation and meet the requirements set out in the constitution. Registered members form the General Assembly.

Governance

The Board of Trustees consists of 5-7 members and is responsible for policy, mission alignment and oversight. The Executive Council, comprising the Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, Secretary, Treasurer, Organizer and Programmes Coordinator, is responsible for day-to-day leadership.

Meetings

The General Assembly meets as provided in the constitution. The Board and Executive Council meet at scheduled intervals to review programmes, finances and organisational matters.

Finance

The organisation maintains a designated bank account. All transactions require two authorised signatories. Accounts are subject to independent annual audit, and financial records are kept for governance and statutory purposes.

Amendment and dissolution

The constitution may be amended in accordance with its provisions. On dissolution, remaining assets are applied to charitable purposes consistent with the organisation’s objects, as permitted by law.